

Maude Kerns Art Center Presents

Painting from Photographs with Sarkis

Join us for this very special painting workshop with accomplished artist, longtime Art Center supporter, and Open Studio participant, Sarkis Antikajian.

Painting from a Photograph is more than simply copying an image. It's about interpretation. In this 2-day workshop, you will learn how to interpret a photograph to make a successful painting. With the guidance of Sarkis, you will learn how to read a photo's visual cues and incorporate them into your artwork as you explore the idea of creating not just a painting, but an artistic impression.

Sarkis will begin each day with a painting demonstration in which he will complete a painting from start to finish, enabling you to observe his techniques and ask questions. You will then begin work on your painting, putting into practice the skills and techniques Sarkis has demonstrated. Individual and group critiques will also help to strengthen your paintings. Students will have a lunch break each day.
